

Chisholm Trail Intermediate School

Parent Involvement Policy

2020-2021

Statement of Purpose

Chisholm Trail Intermediate is dedicated to the success of all students. The faculty and staff believe in the importance of having our families as vital partners in the education of their children. At Chisholm Trail, we believe that parent involvement is essential to the success of our children and welcome the opportunity to work toward establishing a working relationship with our families.

As a campus, we are committed to:

- Respecting parents as partners in the education of their children and honoring their role as first and lifelong teachers; increasing the capacity of our school personnel to work in partnership with their families
- Expecting and supporting high academic achievements for all students
- Taking appropriate steps to help ensure student and staff safety on a daily basis
- Promoting family involvement through site-based leadership and partnered decision-making
- Fostering a safe, welcoming and responsive environment for all family members
- Establishing and promoting open communication as a source of information and trust between the Chisholm Trail Intermediate staff and families
- Providing the means, whenever possible, for the participation of families with barriers to participation that include, but not limited to, limited English proficiency, disabilities, or migratory status
- Informing families if their children have been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in section 200.56 of the Title 1 Final Regulations (67 Fed. Reg. 71710, December 2, 2002)

Parent Involvement means the participation of family members in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:

- (A) that families play an integral role in assisting their child's learning
- (B) that families are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school
- (C) that families are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child
- (D) the carrying out of other activities as described in section 1118 of the ESEA (Elementary School Education Act).

Parent Involvement in Developing the Policy

Chisholm Trail Intermediate stakeholders will jointly develop, review, and revise the Chisholm Trail Intermediate Parent Involvement Policy. Stakeholders may include:

- Parents and family members that are representative of the school community as a whole
- School personnel (teachers, administrators, staff, etc.)

In addition, all family members of existing students will be invited to partake in a review and revision process at the end of every academic year (April-May) in preparation for the following year.

Parent Involvement Opportunities

Chisholm Trail Intermediate values the formal and informal partnerships of families in their children's education. There are many ways families can make significant contributions to student success at home, at school, and in general. We seek to coordinate and integrate family involvement opportunities with other programs of the school. In addition, Chisholm Trail Intermediate will seek to increase both the school's and families' capacity to increase family involvement. These include, but are not limited to participation in the following activities:

Activities may look different (ex: Virtual meetings) due to current and predicted future Covid-19 safety restrictions.

Meet the Teacher Night	Parent Education Workshops	Music Grade Level Programs
Panther Camp	Parent math/science nights	Field Day
PTA meetings/programs	Family Nights	Social Events
Classroom Volunteers	Family/Campus Watch Organizations	Field Trips/ Holiday Parties

Reservation of Funds

Chisholm Trail Intermediate School will set aside at least 1% of its Title 1 funds for the purpose of supporting its parental involvement program. The administration will consult with the Campus Education Improvement Committee (CEIC) regarding the use of funds designated for family involvement.

Annual Meeting

Chisholm Trail Intermediate will hold the Teacher /Curriculum Night during the first two weeks of the school year. This year's meeting will likely be virtual due to Covid-19 and safety precautions.

Items discussed will include:

1. the Title 1 program will be described and school performance information shared
2. the Parent Involvement Policy will be distributed, discussed, and reviewed
3. school curriculum and forms of academic assessment used to measure children's progress will be discussed
4. the proficiency levels students are expected to achieve are reviewed
5. opportunities for family involvement will be presented and explained. Family members will be encouraged to express interest in serving in decision-making bodies of the school.

Additional Title I meetings will be held throughout the year at varying times and all families are welcome and encouraged to attend. Suggestions made and input received during these meetings will be considered in decision-making throughout the year and at practicable times based on the nature of the suggestions /input. Families will be informed about the meetings by email, school web site, school messenger, newsletters, and /or notices sent home with students.

School-Parent Compact

Chisholm Trail Intermediate will work with families, campus faculty, and campus administration to annually develop, review, and revise the school-parent compact. This compact will identify the responsibilities of the school to provide high-level curriculum and instruction, the expectations of the parents to provide support in their child's learning, and the expectations for students to take personal responsibility of their learning. The compacts will be distributed on the school websites and /or sent home with students, and discussed at your first parent-teacher conference.

Evaluation

With the involvement of families, Chisholm Trail Intermediate School will conduct an annual evaluation of the content and success of the school parent involvement policy on the level of family participation and perception. This evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by families. The school will use evaluation findings to design strategies for more effective family involvement programming, and to revise, if necessary, its family involvement policies. Evaluation procedures include the following:

- input from the campus CEIC and its members
- annually survey families to determine the level of participation and to identify barriers that have prevented participation (Annual Family Satisfaction Survey will be an online version made available in a language understood by families whenever practicable);
- annually use survey results, volunteer data base, and other resources as baseline data for the upcoming year (Analysis used in making changes from year to year);
- establish a family engagement goal for the upcoming school year;
- develop and implement strategies to increase family involvement based on evaluation results.

Conclusion

Chisholm Trail Intermediate is committed to the success of all students of all students. We will work together with our families and community to monitor the effectiveness of our Family Involvement and Title I programs with the goal of providing excellence in education for each of our students.

Adoption

This Parent Involvement Policy has been developed jointly with, and agreed upon with, families of Chisholm Trail Intermediate (a campus-wide Title I program provider), as evidenced by family invitations and responses, suggestions for changes from the Family Involvement Specialist based on state requirements, and signatures below.

This Parent Involvement Policy was adopted by Chisholm Trail Intermediate School on April 17, 2020 and will be in effect for the duration of the 2020-2021 school year. The school will distribute this policy to all families on or before September 30, 2020.
